

WORKING WITH REGULATORS

SERVICES, TESTING & TRAINING

For over 30 years, Gaming Laboratories International (GLI®) has been working with regulators from more than 475 jurisdictions all over the world. We started testing for one lottery jurisdiction, and today, we conduct tests and provide independent assessments for lotteries, land-based operations, iGaming, horse racing, and charitable gaming on six continents.

We have more than 1,300 employees working in over 24 laboratory locations, providing regulators 24/7 service.

AHEAD OF THE GAME

Land-based, tribal, lottery, charitable and iGaming regulators around the world trust GLI to test for compliance and ensure the game is fair for everyone – the regulator, the operator and the player. That is why we never stop streamlining our processes and creating new tools to help regulators meet the demanding needs of their jobs.

RANGE OF SERVICES

Beyond testing, GLI helps regulators with a wide range of professional services, including project management, third-party advice and assessments, rule writing, regulation review, field inspections, Title 31 training, forensic inspections, technical consulting, expert witness testimony and more.

VALUE-ADDED TOOLS

GLI has created a toolbox filled with award-winning tools regulators can only acquire from us, including the GLI Standard Series (available for free download at gaminglabs.com), GLIAccess®, GLI Mobile®, and askGLI®, designed to help you conduct business more efficiently and effectively.

TRAINING

GLI University's® world-renowned training programs keep regulators on the forefront of industry-leading technology and advancing regulation. Global experts conduct specialized training on-site or at our facility. GLI University also presents annual, global Regulators Roundtables, which cover various subjects focused on helping regulators understand the testing process. These events help bring the industry together.
