

Rules for use of Certification Mark and Logo Notification / Approval

Bulletproof is a GLI company and a registered trade name of GLI Europe B.V. References to Bulletproof, GLI and GLI Europe are interchangeable and have the same meaning.

Rules governing use of Certification (GLI Europe B.V) and Accreditation Mark (RvA)

GLI EUROPE B.V issues certification marks corresponding to the ISO/IEC 27001 standard for which approval has been given, by way of a current Certificate of Registration.

The certification mark used must correspond to the standard against which the company has been audited and achieved registration (i.e. ISO/IEC 27001).

GLI Europe B.V. will issue the BULLETPROOF SECURITY CERTIFIED mark. Bulletproof is a registered trade name of GLI Europe B.V. at the Dutch Chamber of Commerce (KVK 28117769 Vestigingsnr. 000020201958).

NOTE: Any misuse of the BULLETPROOF SECURITY CERTIFIED mark may result in withdrawal of certificates.

To ensure that the correct markings are used the following rules shall be observed by all companies who receive certification through GLI EUROPE B.V:

1. The marks shall be displayed only in the appropriate form, size and color detailed in this Section.
2. The organization's certificate number is printed under the mark.
3. Electronic reproduction of the marks is permitted (including Internet web sites) provided that the requirements are met and
  - the organization's certificate number is printed under the mark
  - the mark is reproduced so that infilling does not occur
  - degradation and/or distortion of the mark graphic is avoided
  - computer files of the marks shall be prepared from mark masters. Redrawn approximations may not be used.
5. The certified mark/logo shall not be used in any way that might mislead the reader about the status of a certified organization, activities outside the scope and imply that product, process or service is certified. Holders of Certificate shall not make, use or permit any misleading statement and certification document.
6. Holders of certificates issued by GLI EUROPE B.V may use the appropriate mark in the manner prescribed, on stationery and publicity material or other items relevant to their certificate. The accreditation mark shall always be used in conjunction with the GLI EUROPE B.V mark. Holders of accredited certificates may use the GLI EUROPE B.V mark without accreditation mark if they wish.
7. Holders of certificates should not use their certification in such a manner that would bring the certification body and/or system into disrepute and lose public trust.
8. The term 'publicity material' shall not include notices, labels, documents or written announcements affixed to or otherwise appearing on goods or products, unless the goods or products have been manufactured under an accredited product conformity scheme. This restriction shall also apply to primary (e.g. blister packs) packaging, promotional products and test certificates/certificate of analysis.

9. Upon suspension or withdrawal of its certification, the use of GLI / Bulletproof mark or logo shall be discontinued from all advertising matter, stationery etc. that contains a reference to certification. The use of the logo on all stationery/advertising material shall be amended if the scope of certification is reduced.
10. Upon a reduction in scope, advertising matter shall be amended.

OTHER RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF THE MARKS

1. The accreditation marks shall not be displayed on vehicles, except in publicity material containing an accreditation mark as part of a larger advertisement, provided the mark is used in the publicity material in accordance with the conditions detailed elsewhere in this information sheet.
2. The accreditation marks shall not be displayed on buildings and flags.
3. Accreditation marks may be displayed on internal walls and doors, and on exhibition stands.
4. Accreditation marks shall not be used in such a way as to suggest that GLI EUROPE B.V or RvA has certified, or approved, any product or any service supplied by a licensee of a mark, or in any other misleading manner.
5. Accreditation marks shall not be used in such a way as to imply that RvA accepts responsibility for activities carried out under the scope of accreditation and/or certification.
6. All quotations for work that contain an accreditation mark shall clearly indicate those activities that are not RvA accredited.
7. Marks - other than the Testing, Inspection and Calibration marks - may not be used on the test, inspection and calibration reports and certificates, respectively.
8. Any use of an accreditation mark that might contravene the conditions laid down in this publication shall be referred to RvA.
9. GLI Europe B.V. shall ensure that they audit the use of national accreditation marks by their certificate holders. Conditions for the use of the marks by such certificate holders are given in these rules.
10. Reproduction of the marks shall be based on master versions supplied at the time of certification, to which certificate holders must add their certificate number.
11. Do not use its certification in such a manner that would bring the certification into disrepute and lose public trust.
12. RvA logo shall not be used on visiting cards.

GLI EUROPE B.V will take action and deal with incorrect references to certification status or misleading use of certification documents, marks or audit reports. The action may include requests for correction and corrective action, suspension, withdrawal of certification, publication of the transgression and if necessary legal action.

USE OF GLI / Bulletproof CERTIFICATION MARKS IN MARKETING MATERIALS

Approval

1. This could be a tangible product itself or product in an individual package, container, etc. In case of testing/analyzing activities, the product could be a test/analysis report or certificate of conformity or certificate of training or achievement.
- *2. This could be over-packaging made of cardboard or any other material that can be reasonably considered as not reaching end users.
- *3. This applies to marks that have a specific form including some basic description of its applicability. A statement in words alone does not constitute a mark in this sense. Any such wording should be true and not misleading.
- *4. This could be a clear statement that “(This product) was manufactured under an information security management system certified/registered as being in conformity with ISO 27001”.
- *5. When using accreditation logos, the GLI/ Bulletproof client must pay adequate attention to avoid infringement of any specific accreditation body requirement. E.g. IAS does not allow their logo to be displayed on vehicles or promotional items such as pens, placemats, diaries etc.

For those organizations seeking to demonstrate that their products/services have been manufactured/delivered under their certified ISO 27001 management system (without using the GLI Europe B.V. mark/logos), the following statement can be made on the product and its respective packaging:

“This product/service has been manufactured/delivered by *Certified Client Name* under the controls established by a GLI Europe B.V. approved Information Security Management System that conforms to ISO/IEC 27001:2013 under certificate number: XXXXX.”
